

Description of Face-Intellect software package distribution

Face-Intellect software package distribution is supplied on CD.

Distribution contains installation program and necessary program components for Face-Intellect software package installation on backbone computer.

To install Face-Intellect software package you should have administrator rights.

The Face Intellect software is installed as a part of the Intellect software. The information on the compatibility of the Intellect software versions and Face Intellect is available by the following link: General information about product releases and versions compatibility.